

Ethnomusicology!

The Mashantucket Pequot Museum and Research Center visits the Auburn Public Library

The study of music that represents the shared values, society, cultural significance, and music composition and performance interwoven into a culture is known as Ethnomusicology.

Saturday
June 2nd

11:00am–12:00pm

All ages welcome

Join Pequot Museum Educator Chris Newell as he discusses the “Musical Tour” of Native American traditions.

Key Issues in Indian County

Modern Day Pow Wow and Pow Wow History

Misrepresentations of Native Americans in Popular Culture and Sports

Graphic source: <https://www.google.com/search?q=pequot+native+american+musical+instruments&client>

Register

Online

Visit the Library

Call the Library

www.auburnlibrary.org | 369 Southbridge Street, Auburn MA | 508.832.7790 | Dr. Jean E. Collins, Director

Ask us about our Museum Pass Program. We have passes for the Pequot Museum!