

Auburn Public Library

Learn about Hydroponics!

Hydroponics is the science of growing vegetable and other plants without soil. Crops such as tomatoes, strawberries, onions, lettuce, and herbs do particularly well when grown hydroponically.

Enjoy fresh vegetables and herbs year round!

REGISTER

- Online at www.auburnlibrary.org
 - Visit the Library
 - Call the Library
- Ask for Program Registration

Gardening of the Future!

WHERE/WHEN

Auburn Public Library
Merriam Room
Saturday
February 24th
11:00am- 12:00pm

Tom Dzaugis from Green Path Garden Supply will discuss the basics of getting started with hydroponics.

This is the fifth presentation in the Auburn Public Library Public Service Education Series

Auburn Public Library | www.auburnlibrary.org | 369 Southbridge Street, Auburn, MA | (508) 832-7790 | Dr. Jean E. Collins, Director