

Ted Reinstein visits the Auburn Public Library

Biography of Ted Reinstein

Join us at the Auburn Public Library as we welcome author Ted Reinstein, who will discuss his book:

*New England Notebook:
One Reporter, Six States, Uncommon Stories*

Ted Reinstein, a reporter for Boston's WCVB-TV's "Chronicle" since 1995, has covered New England for sixteen years, discovering its diverse people, memorable places, fascinating history, odd pastimes, delicious foods, quirky collectors, skillful craftsmen, and one-of-a-kind entertainers.

Ted's engaging presentation will cover the best of his stories in engaging tidbits and little-known facts, going beyond the merely curious to reveal the heart of what Reinstein calls "this historic and quintessentially American place."

When Thursday January 17th | 6:30 – 7:30pm

Where Auburn Public Library | Merriam Room

The program will be followed by a Q&A session, opportunities to purchase Ted's books, and an author signing.

Registration Required

Register online or Call or Visit the Library

Ask for Program Registration

This program is a reschedule from November 2018.

www.auburnlibrary.org | 369 Southbridge Street, Auburn, MA | (508) 832-7790 | Dr. Jean E. Collins, Director

Please Note: This is the reschedule date from the November date. If you were on the original registration list and still wish to attend on this date, you do not need to register again.

If you cannot attend the reschedule date and have not yet spoken with a member of Program Registration, please call to notify us as soon as possible that you are unable to attend on the reschedule date. If you did not register previously, you may register until our cap is reached, at which time you will be placed on the wait list.