

Ted Reinstein visits the Auburn Public Library

Biography of Ted Reinstein

Join us at the Auburn Public Library as we welcome author Ted Reinstein who will discuss his book:

*New England Notebook:
One Reporter, Six States, Uncommon Stories*

Ted Reinstein, a reporter for Boston's WCVB-TV's "Chronicle" since 1995, has covered New England for sixteen years, discovering its diverse people, memorable places, fascinating history, odd pastimes, delicious foods, quirky collectors, skillful craftsmen, and one-of-a-kind entertainers.

Ted's engaging presentation will cover the best of his stories in engaging tidbits and little-known facts, going beyond the merely curious to reveal the heart of what Reinstein calls "this historic and quintessentially American place."

When

Thursday November 15th 6:30 – 7:30pm

Where

Auburn Public Library | Merriam Room

The program will be followed by a Q&A session, opportunities to purchase his books, and an author signing.

Registration Required

Register online or Call or Visit the Library
Ask for Program Registration

www.auburnlibrary.org | 369 Southbridge Street, Auburn, MA | (508) 832-7790 | Dr. Jean E. Collins, Director